

Dear Love and Care Parents,

I hope you all enjoyed the Fall Festival as much as the children and the staff did. It turned out fantastic thanks to the two room mothers Miss Patty (aka Kevin's mom) and Rochelle (aka Harrison's mom). They both worked hard to decorate, cover the tables, put out the goodies, help change the children, serve the children, and clean up the lunchroom better than it was to start with. Well done, you sweet angels!

I would also like to thank all the families that donated the goodies for the party, cookies, cupcakes, candy and goodie bags, plates, cups and napkins. Super Job Parents!
What a way to have the first party of the year start off.....

Be aware we have another party Fast approaching and we will need three more room mothers. This is our annual Thanksgiving Feast We will be having each family sign up to bring a dish that would feed 15 people. The children will be cooking too so it will be quite a feast. I will get the sign ups out by Friday. The room mothers will need to be able to arrive by 9:45 and start to set up. Because this one is, busy. I am asking that you do not bring any younger or older siblings with you so you can be free to help get the potluck feast ready to serve by 11:00am.

All parents are invited to attend the Feast. You may arrive at 11:15 to watch the children sing a few songs and say a few poems. We will sit down to eat by 11:30 and it usually is over by 12:15. Any help to clean up and take down chairs and tables would be greatly appreciated. Children that stay for extended care will be saying good-bye to their parents and friends and getting ready for nap by 12:30. Remember if this is not a day your child normally attends; please bring them at 11:15 so they can join us for songs and poems. These parents must stay with their child. The party ends at 12:15.

Another word of thanks to all the parents that drove to the pumpkin patch. It was the best time we have ever had. Everyone kept up with their own children and the child they drove. That took some real keen eyes and cool heads especially in the maze. Make sure you look at the pictures Kevin's mom and Nadia's mom took at the pumpkin patch. They are adorable.

Happy Thanksgiving
Love,
La Velda
